

Disability and Income

CANADA
YEAR 2014

1/5

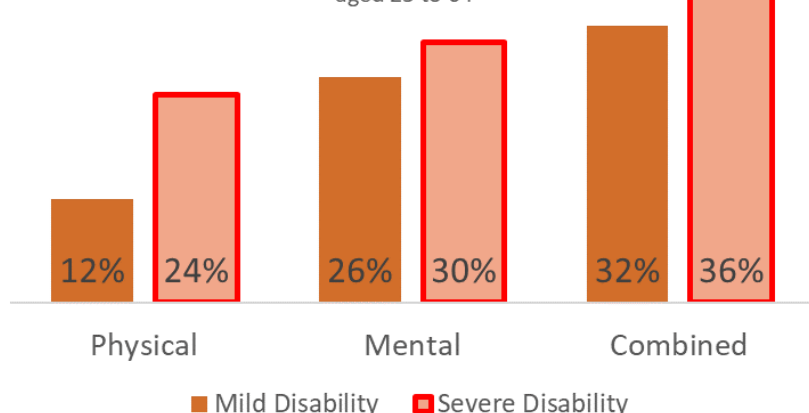

Of the total population aged 25 to 64 has some type of disability

41%

People with disabilities representing the low-income population

Low-income rate by disability type and severity class, persons aged 25 to 64

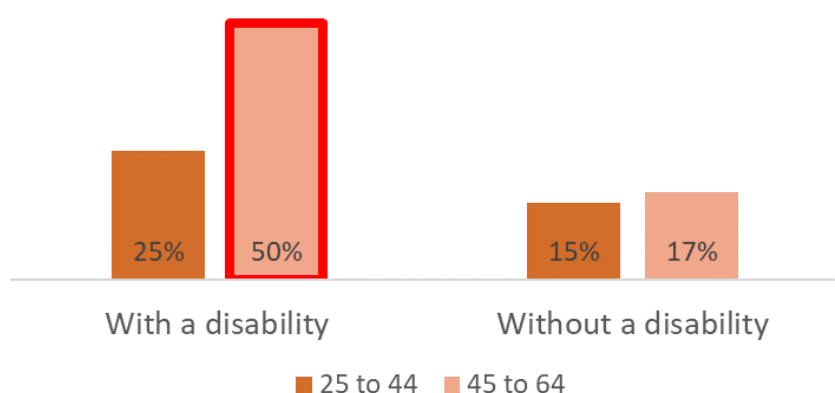

People with severe disability the most disadvantaged

People with severe combined disability earn below 36%

The Elderly

Over one-half of unattached people aged 45 to 64 with a disability are in low income, twice the rate of their counterparts aged 25 to 44

Low-income rate by disability status and age group

Being lone parents increase the risk of low income in 33%.

Among persons who report a disability, 1 in 4 is in low income.

